 FREE ENTRY *****

Port Macquarie Rotary Club's giant book sale will again be held at Port Macquarie Panthers Club, this year in the newly renovated auditorium.

Over 40,000 new and pre-loved books will be available for purchase at very low prices, plus there'll be extra special discounts for books purchased on Sunday.

This huge literary extravaganza caters for every age and interest with many categories to choose from - including fiction books grouped by author, through to all types of children's books, travel, history, cooking and gardening.

Held over 3 days each year, this event is a MUST attend for all book lovers.

All money raised goes back to the local community - so come along - buy a book or two or three - and support your local community !!
